Foreign nationals now eligible for vaccination

FE BUREAU
Pune, August 9

THE MINISTRY OF health and family welfare on Monday decided to allow foreign nationals residing in India to register on the CoWin portal to take the Covid-19 vaccine. Foreign residents have to use their passport as the identity document for the registration, after which they will get a slot for vaccination.

A significant number of foreign nationals live in India, especially in large metropolitan areas, where the potential for the spread of Covid-19 is high.

Hence, it is important to vaccinate all eligible persons. This will ensure the safety of foreign nationals and reduce the possibility of further transfer of infection, a ministry release said.

As of Monday, India has administered more than 51 crore vaccine doses.
